

Combined US/CA Postal Codes

Premium Edition

Data Set / File Specifications

This product contains one or more raw data files delivered in ASCII text, comma-separated-value (CSV) format. Each file contains a single header row specifying column headings followed by one or more data rows. Each row within a file is terminated by an ASCII carriage return/line feed (CR/LF) character combination. Each column within a row is delimited by a single ASCII comma `,` character. Columns are encapsulated using "Double Quotes" only if the column's data value contains a comma `,` character.
